

Zanzibar Travel Guide 2026

By SubSaharan Expeditions

Overview

Zanzibar, known as the 'Spice Island', is a tropical paradise located off the coast of Tanzania. Famous for its white sandy beaches, turquoise waters, and rich Swahili culture, Zanzibar is the perfect extension to a Northern Circuit safari adventure.

Top Highlights

- Stone Town – A UNESCO World Heritage Site with historic architecture and culture.
- Nungwi & Kendwa Beaches – Crystal-clear waters and sunset views.
- Spice Tours – Discover Zanzibar's world-famous spices.
- Prison Island – Giant tortoises and snorkeling experiences.

Top Activities

- Beach Relaxation & Luxury Resorts
- Snorkeling & Scuba Diving
- Dhow Sunset Cruises
- Cultural & Historical Tours
- Jozani Forest Visit – Home of the Red Colobus Monkey

Best Time to Visit

June – October and December – February offer the best beach weather with clear skies and warm ocean temperatures. Zanzibar is accessible year-round.

Plan Your Zanzibar Getaway with SubSaharan Expeditions

Combine your Tanzania safari with a relaxing Zanzibar beach holiday. Our team designs tailor-made itineraries including flights, transfers, and luxury accommodations. Email: info@subsaharanexpeditions.com Location: Arusha, Tanzania Website: www.subsaharanexpeditions.com